How can I get college credit while in high school?

- ❑ 1. AP or IB DP/CP: high school credit and you may earn college credit based on examination score for AP and internal assessment with exam scores for IB
  - ❑ 2. Dual enrollment- full or part-time academic college courses: high school and college credit
  - ❑ 3. Dual enrollment/HOPE Grant Technical program: high school and college credit
  - ❑ 4. Atlanta College Career Academy (ACCA):

Which one should I choose? DP or CP?

It all depends on your interests....

Both are academic and rigorous

DP has a minimum 7 IB classes for 2 years

CP has a minimum 3 IB classes for 2 years

DP and CP students are in the same IB academic classes

Both are PROGRAMS = complete core service learning & major writing assignments

CP, however, is different = must continue a pathway during junior/senior year

What are the requirements to enter DP or CP?

DP

- 87% + in core & Language class
- 5 or higher on the Personal Project and it must be turned in on the due date ***
- Minimum PSAT *** reading/writing score of 500
- 2 years of the same Foreign Language

CP

- Cumulative GPA: includes ALL subjects
- Core GPA: includes only Lang Arts, Math, Science, Social Studies & World Language
